

Chapter 2

Seven Letters

It is time to speak the truth in love.
Jesus' expectation is that you will listen!

Seven brief letters are hidden within Revelation. Jesus sent these letters to seven churches located in a Roman province, called Asia. In each letter Jesus urged, He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. Jesus was saying something like, “If you have an ear, my expectation is that you will listen!” He repeated this expectation seven times, once in each letter.

TABLE 2-1: JESUS URGES US TO “HEAR” THE MESSAGES TO THE CHURCHES.

Church	Revelation	The plea to listen
Ephesus	2:7	He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.
Smyrna	2:11	He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.
Pergamum	2:17	He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.
Thyatira	2:29	He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.
Sardis	3:6	He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.
Philadelphia	3:13	He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.
Laodicea	3:22	He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

THE ETERNAL CROWN

Jesus did not provide this urge to listen to warn about invading armies, or even about nuclear war. This emphasis is to focus our attention on seven letters. In general, Jesus first encouraged the church by recognizing positive attributes. He then discussed a need for improvement. However, note that Smyrna and Philadelphia did not receive any correction, while Laodicea did not receive any praise.

TABLE 2-2: SEVEN MESSAGES

Church	Commendation	Criticism
Ephesus	Rejects evil, perseveres	Little Passion
Smyrna	Gracefully bears suffering	None
Pergamum	Keeps the faith of Christ	Idolatry, immorality, bad doctrine
Thyatira	Love, service, faith, increased patience	Idolatry, immorality, bad doctrine
Sardis	Some have kept the faith	Dead
Philadelphia	Perseveres in faith	None
Laodicea	None	Indifferent

At first, these letters may appear outdated and bizarre. However, the messages are timeless in value. Some of the practices and doctrines described are no less bizarre than beliefs and traditions of contemporary churches.

The bad doctrine at Pergamum and Thyatira was no worse than false doctrine taught today. For example, the Mormon church teaches that Jesus is the brother of Satan. Countless contemporary churches practice idolatry; many teach members to kneel before statues of wood or stone. Even though members refer to these statues as “icons” many are in fact—treated as idols. (Exodus 20:4-6)

BIBLE PROPHECY

Church History

Jesus could have sent a letter to any of a hundred first-century churches. He did not select many prominent churches, such as Antioch, Alexandria, Jerusalem, and Rome. It is widely thought that Jesus selected these specific churches for at least one reason: when placed end-to-end these letters describe worldwide church history, starting at the first century and ending with the primary church of today.

TABLE 2-3: PREDOMINANCE OF EACH CHURCH

Church	Description	Predominance Began
Ephesus	Second generation (complacent)	95 AD
Smyrna	Martyrs (persecuted, alive)	100 AD
Pergamum	Catholic (compromised doctrine)	312 AD
Thyatira	Catholic (misguided)
Sardis	Catholic (dead)
Philadelphia	Protestant (missionary, alive)	1517 AD
Laodicea	Protestant (complacent)	1900 AD

The past two thousand years all seven church types have continued to exist to one extent or another. Today the contemporary church is largely complacent (Laodicea) in nature. However, God's people can still be found in other conditions. For example, believers living in countries that execute Christians are part of the Smyrna church. Believers who make scripture interpretation subject to human tradition belong to the Pergamum, Thyatira, or Sardis church.

Ephesus

Ephesus was a typical church during the later part of the first century. Many sincere believers today identify with this church. From Paul's letter to the Ephesians and the quality of church leadership, it is easy to conclude that Ephesus was a mature church thirty years earlier; this letter does not focus on basic salvation doctrine—but instead gives instructions for waging spiritual warfare.

Ephesus had world-class leadership. A home to Paul for two years (Acts 19:9-10) and later led by the pastor Timothy, this church was also home to Apolos, Pricilla, Aquila, and the Apostle John. This was the fourth letter sent to Ephesus. Paul wrote the first letter to the entire church; he later wrote two letters its pastor, Timothy (Ephesians, 1st Timothy, 2nd Timothy).

“To the angel of the church in Ephesus write:

These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands: I know your deeds, your hard work and your perseverance. I know that you cannot tolerate wicked men, that you have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them false. You have persevered and have endured hardships for my name, and have not grown weary.

Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken your first love. Remember the height from which you have fallen! Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place. But you have this in your favor: You hate the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God. (Revelation 2:1-7)

Ephesus was doctrinally sound, its membership tested false teachers and found them false. This was a hard-working church—with strong deeds, hard work and perseverance. Yet the Ephesus church had lost its passion. Jesus said, Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken your first love.

BIBLE PROPHECY

This second-generation church had developed a comfortable, compromised relationship with the pagan world. The following outlines what it means to lose your first love.

TABLE 2-4: EVIDENCE OF A LOST FIRST LOVE

- When I value praise from people more than praise from God.
- When I am callous in the way I treat a Christian brother.
- When I choose not to witness because I fear rejection.
- When my delight in Jesus is less than in someone else.
- When my leisure-time thoughts do not turn to God.
- When I do not cheerfully give to God's work
- When I become complacent to sin.
- When I do not forgive.

Because the Ephesus church did not repent, severe religious persecution began. Persecution was the central theme of the subsequent church, located at Smyrna. Profound suffering rekindled passion within this church, which prevailed the next two centuries.

Smyrna

“To the angel of the church in Smyrna write:

These are the words of him who is the First and the Last, who died and came to life again. I know your afflictions and your poverty—yet you are rich! I know the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. I tell you, the devil will put some of you in prison to test you, and you will suffer persecution for ten days. Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life.

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not be hurt at all by the second death. (Revelation 2: 8-11)

THE ETERNAL CROWN

Smyrna was a beautiful city and the second largest in Provincial Asia. However, the large Jewish population meant that Christians were greatly persecuted. The Smyrna church was a persecuted church that produced countless martyrs. Jesus said to this church: I know your afflictions and your poverty—yet you are rich!

The Smyrna church predominance between 95 AD and 312 AD paralleled the story of the original Smyrna church. Refusing to worship Caesar, martyrs unwaveringly laid down their lives, as replacement new believers continually came forward. The Roman Empire martyred an estimated five million believers. Many believe that Christians were fed to wild animals inside the world-famous Roman Coliseum.

Smyrna is described as suffering for ten days. Some historians note that between 95 AD and 312 AD a total of ten Roman emperors persecuted Christians. Other historians state that there were ten waves of persecution against Christians. Jesus had no criticism of this church.

Satan eventually gave up trying to destroy the church from the outside; instead, he chose to become active in church leadership. The new strategy was to destroy the church from the inside; that is the story of the following churches.

Pergamum

“To the angel of the church in Pergamum write:

These are the words of him who has the sharp, double-edged sword. I know where you live—where Satan has his throne. Yet you remain true to my name. You did not renounce your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas, my faithful witness, who was put to death in your city—where Satan lives.

Nevertheless, I have a few things against you: You have people there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to entice the Israelites to sin by eating food sacrificed to idols and by committing sexual immorality. Likewise you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. Repent therefore! Otherwise, I will soon come to you and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

BIBLE PROPHECY

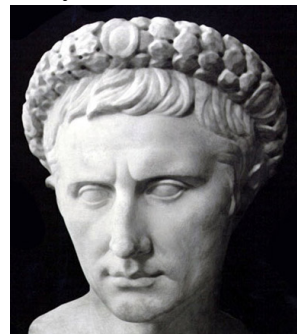

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to him who receives it. (Revelation 2:12-17)

The Christian church joined with the Roman Empire to form the Pergamum church. This Church-plus-State relationship formed an Imperial church, an increasingly corrupt church. The Pergamum church was loyal to the rulers of this earth—not to the eternal King. In like manner, the first-century church at Pergamum was aligned with Rome; it actually promoted emperor worship. Pergamum accepted leadership from the Roman Empire. When interpreted in English Pergamum translates as “married to power.”

This church accepted immorality and the worship of idols. False doctrine slipped into the church to include the attitude of Balaam. Even though appointed a prophet of God, Balaam resorted to sorcery. (Numbers 24:1) Bad doctrine included the teaching of the Nicolaitans. Historians translate Nicolaitans to mean, “to rule over the laity”—in other words, to rule over non-pastoral members of the church. The Pergamum time in history saw the rise of pontiffs. The problem was pride, as religious leaders created high-ranking positions in order to arrogantly rule over God’s people.

The Pergamum church began when Constantine, a Roman emperor ruling from the city of Byzantium (Istanbul Turkey), seized control of Christianity and made Catholic teaching preeminent. Constantine converted the office of “pontiff” from being the leader of pagan Roman religions into the leader of Christianity.

At the time of Christ’s birth another Roman emperor, Augustus Caesar, was the Pope. The pagan foundations of the Roman church is further demonstrated in the founding of the College of Pontiffs; the second king of Rome began this institution 2,700 years ago.(1) The Roman church was built upon pagan tradition. Those who hold the title of “pope” walk on a path established by Roman emperors.

Augustus Caesar
Roman Emperor and Pontifex Maximus

Public Domain

Thyatira

“To the angel of the church in Thyatira write:

These are the words of the Son of God, whose eyes are like blazing fire and whose feet are like burnished bronze. I know your deeds, your love and faith, your service and perseverance, and that you are now doing more than you did at first.

Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols. I have given her time to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling. So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways. I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am he who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds. Now I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, to you who do not hold to her teaching and have not learned Satan’s so-called deep secrets (I will not impose any other burden on you): Only hold on to what you have until I come.

To him who overcomes and does my will to the end, I will give authority over the nations—

*‘He will rule them with an iron scepter;
he will dash them to pieces like pottery’ –*

just as I have received authority from my Father. I will also give him the morning star. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. (Revelation 2:18-29)

A false prophetess nicknamed Jezebel taught Christians to indulge in sexual immorality, which deeply harmed the Thyatira church. (1 Kings 16:28-19:2) Jezebel claimed to know the deep secrets of God. Today, this is similar to the Mormon church—which holds to the Book of Mormon as being more reliable than the New Testament. It also speaks of Catholic doctrine and dogma—that often go far beyond what scripture says—and often contradicts scripture.

BIBLE PROPHECY

During the Thyatira church period, Roman church leaders replaced the authority of scripture with man-made traditions. These traditions promoted papal authority. It promoted the persecution of believers who maintained scripture alone held ultimate authority. In addition, Roman church members committed sexual immorality—a problem that continued into modern times, with priests homosexually molesting altar boys.

A widely published Associated Press report quotes Richard Sipe, a former monk as saying that priest sexual abuse is a centuries-old problem: “The Vatican is in the know and has documented its knowledge throughout the centuries.” Two former monks, Richard Sipe and Patrick Wall, along with an active Catholic priest, Thomas Doyle, compiled a 300-page document. The authors wrote, “It is a calculated cover-up of epic proportions.”(2) The report further states that, “Vatican officials have known about sex abuse by priests going all the way back to the fourth century and have consistently kept quiet about it.” These documents prove sexual immorality during the Thyatira church period.

In 2005, Pope Benedict XVI was implicated in a credible sexual molestation lawsuit, just before he was selected as the new pontiff. He was actually served legal notice. Plaintiffs in Houston Texas cited a May 18, 2001 letter that he wrote while serving as head of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. In a letter to bishops around the world concerning child molestation, then-Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger wrote that cases of this kind are subject to “pontifical secret.” Ratzinger was responsible due to his active cover-up of known child molestation. Later the newly elected Pope asked President Bush to declare him immune from liability. Immunity was approved because United States law does not permit suits against sitting heads of State, to include the Vatican.(3)

Jesus criticizes the eating of food sacrificed to idols. In other words, bread was used in the practice of idolatry. Today in the Catholic sacrifice of the mass, bread is offered to God—for the practice of idolatry. Catholics accept bread consecrated by their priests—as actually being Christ in physical form. People kneel before this communion bread, which makes that bread an idol.

Anything worshiped in the place of God—is an idol.

Sardis

“To the angel of the church in Sardis write:

These are the words of him who holds the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I know your deeds; you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up! Strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of my God. Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard; obey it, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief and you will not know at what time I will come to you.

Yet you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes. They will walk with me, dressed in white, for they are worthy. He who overcomes will, like them, be dressed in white. I will never blot out his name from the book of life, but will acknowledge his name before my Father and his angels. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. (Revelation 3:1-6)

The fifth church period in history corresponds with the church at Sardis. Among the people on earth, this church had a reputation of being alive; but Jesus says this church was dead. A church is dead when building the reputation of church leaders becomes more important than building the reputation of God. Much like the first-century Pharisee leaders of the Jewish faith, people sought the approval of men—as more important than the approval of God. (Galatians 1:10)

The reputation for being alive can be seen in the impressive construction of cathedrals built in Europe. Everything was done for the glory of the “one true church.” Honor was also given its papal leader—who was called “the” representative of Christ on earth. While the reputation of the Roman Catholic leaders was zealously protected—precious little was done solely for the glory of God.

There can be no greater condemnation of a church than for Jesus to pronounce it dead. Sardis is the Catholic church, in great need of reformation. Philadelphia tells of the success that came from the Protestant Reformation.

BIBLE PROPHECY

Philadelphia

The Protestant Reformation began the time of Philadelphia pre-eminence. The Philadelphia church includes a remnant of faithful believers who passionately serve God today. Philadelphia is a Greek word that translates as “brotherly love”.

“To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write:

These are the words of him who is holy and true; who holds the key of David. What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open. I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. I will make those who are of the synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews, though they are not, but are liars—I will make them come and fall down at your feet and acknowledge that I have loved you. Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is going to come upon the whole world to test those who live on the earth.

I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take your crown. Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. (Revelation 3:7-13)

The invention of the Gutenberg printing press in the fifteenth century increased the availability of the Bible to ordinary people. Through cruel inquisitions, popes fiercely fought those who believed scriptures possessed ultimate authority. Catholic leadership routinely murdered Protestant believers; the contrived charge for which believers were burnt at the stake was called “heresy”. (John 16:2)

Over centuries, attempts to minimize this historical event, similar to current efforts to deny the Jewish holocaust, have met with success. For example, King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella established the Spanish Inquisition in 1478; Spain did not definitively abolish this form of religious terrorism until 1834. Yet many accountings today use phrases like “greatly exaggerated” to describe early historical estimates of execution totals, or simply do not reference earlier estimates. Biased historians discredit estimates greater than a few thousand executions.(4)

As the administrator of Inquisitions, the Catholic church wrote and maintained the official records; but what cannot be argued is that Protestant believers eventually fled to America. In 1790, the United States named Philadelphia Pennsylvania its capital city. Larger than any other city in the colonies, both the Declaration of Independence and United States Constitution were signed at Independence Hall. Its greater church eventually provided a worldwide missionary outreach.

A remnant of Philadelphia believers continue to faithfully serve God. Because these believers continue to keep God’s command to endure persecution patiently, Jesus will act upon his promise to keep this church from the trial that is going to come upon the whole world. This promise of protection means that Philadelphia believers will not suffer through the end-times—a subject more fully discussed later.

Laodicea

The Laodicea church predominance began about 1900, with a wealthy church membership predominately interested in its own comfort and security. Members enjoy their place in society—and are proud of their religion. Laodicea is a church with much religion—but little passion.

“To the angel of the church in Laodicea write:

These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the ruler of God’s creation. I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth. You say, ‘I am rich: I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.’ But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked. I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see.

BIBLE PROPHECY

Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest, and repent. Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me.

To him who overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.” (Revelation 3:14-22)

Laodicea is the primary end-times church; it is the preeminent church in western civilization today. Laodicea places its founder on the outside; Jesus said to this church, I stand at the door and knock.

Many Christians today have wealth. Yet their spiritual poverty caused Jesus to say they were neither cold nor hot, but lukewarm. Laodicea is an educated church—smart enough to avoid complete complacency—and therefore is not cold. But, instead of passionately applying that knowledge—to make Laodicea hot—members apply their God-given talents to sustain their own comfort.

Laodicea is a weak church that is lacking credibility and intensity. Laodicea has sufficient wealth and communication tools to reach entire the world with the gospel—but is largely ineffective. The Laodicea church is compromised—members have bought into another religion. This religion is of primary importance in American thought. It sets our priorities; it demands our loyalty. This belief system is an infrequently recognized religion, called Secularism.(5)

Laodicea sees itself as rich and that members do not need a thing. Jesus answers saying in effect, “you need everything!” Jesus says this kind of church makes him sick. He will spit (literally “vomit”) this church out his mouth. Jesus’ warning of discipline for the Laodicea church is a central concept in this book; discipline will one day touch millions of believers.

References:

1. Wikipedia. Pontifex Maximus, Apr 7, 2007.
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pontifex_Maximus
2. Zoll, R. Abuse Victim Advocates Point to Vatican. Associated Press. Jul 10, 2004.

THE ETERNAL CROWN

3. Winfield, N. Pope Lawyer Seek Immunity in Texas Case. Associated Press. Aug 16, 2005.
4. Wikipedia. Spanish Inquisition. Apr 20, 2007.
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Spanish_Inquisition
5. Secularism (Chapter Appendix)

SECULARISM

Secularism started, like the Christian Reformation, with the invention of the printing press. It soon became the worldview, or type of religion, for intellectuals, to include university professors and students. During this time the Catholic church made false interpretations of scripture, which over time science corrected. Secularism gained credibility among intellectuals, and created a schism between the Catholic religion and science.

There are different types of Secularists. Agnostics believe there is insufficient evidence to know whether God exists. Atheists believe there is no God, and that life on earth simply evolved over billions of years. Accordingly, God is a projection of man's own thoughts and desires; man created God. Many Secularists view death as final; there is no afterlife. Their belief is that God does not exist, and therefore will never be their judge.

Millions of Christians live their lives as “functional atheists.” Despite having a measure of faith, they live as if there were no God. They are largely apathetic concerning God's existence. Secular Christians align their priorities from the secularist viewpoint. They value possessions and the attractions of this world—over a life of service to God. This is why Jesus said to the final church, You say, ‘I am rich: I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.’ But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked. (Revelation 3:17)

During the period of Enlightenment (1600AD - 1800AD), Secularists elevated science, and scientific methodology, to the level of being the ultimate test for truth. Philosophers openly attacked biblical principles, instructing people to assert their own intellect. Darwin theorized life evolved from natural, random processes and not from an intelligent design. Darwin took away the need to acknowledge a rational or personal Creator. There was no longer a need to consider any moral authority higher than man. This opened the door for Mother Nature to replace God as having awesome power—such as from a storm or earthquake. While claiming to be compassionate, Secularists leave homeless citizens on the streets in order to fund the search for the origin of life on Mars.

While also claiming to embrace scientific knowledge, Secularists ignore the wealth of scientific evidence that proves the existence of God. The second law of thermodynamics (entropy) established as scientific fact that our universe is moving from order to disorder, and not to a higher level of order. This foundational law of Physics makes evolution impossible. A simple illustration of entropy is that without maintenance, things break over time.

The conscience—guilt—reveal a moral and spiritual quality to man. Spiritual qualities include a longing to understand something beyond this life. God designed and carefully placed such qualities within you.